Reflection question:

How has God's kindness surpassed what I think I deserve?

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear St. Mary's Parishioners,

“Open your mind’s eye,” says God the Father to St. Catherine of Siena in the beginning of The Dialogue, “and look within me, and you will see the dignity and beauty of my (human) creature.” In this private revelation, Catherine is having a conversation with God, like two friends at a cafe. He tells her to use her intellect to penetrate the truth of being created in God’s “image and likeness” as revealed in the Book of Genesis. When we begin to appreciate our God-given worth, it will open up the wider truth of who God is: “They see my goodness in themselves and they know my truth with their understanding—which is the soul’s eye—is enlightened in me. The pupil of this eye is the most holy faith, and this light of faith enables them to discern and know and follow the way and teaching of my Truth, the incarnate Word.” The Father encourages Catherine to ponder these truths and peer into pure love, “O dearest daughter whom I so love, you who are my bride, rise above yourself and open your mind’s eye. Look at me, infinite Goodness, and see my unspeakable love for you....”

Understanding Leads to Greater Desire for God

A greater understanding of who God is can act like a spark, igniting an explosive desire to be united to God. We will begin to see God as love, experiencing for ourselves what John wrote in his first letter that “God is love”. Our yearning for him will only increase as our mind pierces this reality and we find ourselves craving for “union with God, the ground of our being and supreme Beauty....” Catherine was delighted as her own desire increased for the truth of God that sprung from the depths of her soul. As she delved more deeply into the infinite goodness of God, her heart only grew more and more attracted to him, like a cavernous cave with no end in sight: “The more I enter you, the more I discover, and the more I discover, the more I seek you. You are insatiable, you in whose depth the soul is sated yet remains always hungry for you, thirsty for you, eternal Trinity, longing to see you with the light in your light.”

In Christ,

Fr. Brian J. Solano

Vote NO on Proposition 1

Sadly, California is presently one of the most permissive states in the nation for abortion. Proposition 1 promotes an unlimited expansion of abortion here, while its defeat would keep all abortion laws as they are, including our common-sense limits on late-term abortions. Our bishops are calling us to unite in prayer and action to defeat Prop 1. Please visit www.Catholic.org/Prop1 to find answers to common questions and resources to help defeat this misleading, expensive, and unnecessary ballot initiative.

You can't have a complete relationship with Jesus by yourself!
"Why not?"

Because Jesus has so much more to offer!
The Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Reconciliation, and the Eucharist are an encounter with Jesus.

Want to complete your sacraments?
New Christian Initiation for Adults classes are starting!
Please call 707-372-8919 to find out more!

VIGÉSIMO SÉPTIMO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

2 de octubre de 2022

¡Señor, aumentanos la fe! (Lucas 17:5-10).

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados Feligreses de Santa María,

“Abre el ojo de tu mente”, dice Dios Padre a Santa Catherine de Siena al comienzo de El Diálogo, “y mira dentro de mí, y verás la dignidad y la belleza de mi criatura (humana)”. En esta revelación privada, Catherine está en una conversación con Dios, como dos amigos en un café. Él le dice que use su intelecto para penetrar la verdad de ser creada a “imagen y semejanza” de Dios tal y como se revela en el Libro de Génesis. Cuando comenzamos a apreciar nuestro valor dado por Dios, se abrirá la verdad más amplia de quién es Dios: “Ellos ven mi bondad en sí mismos y conocen mi verdad con su entendimiento – el cual es el ojo del alma – está iluminado en mí. La pupila de este ojo es la fe santísima, y esta luz de la fe les permite discernir y conocer y seguir el camino y la enseñanza de mi Verdad, el Verbo encarnado”. El Padre anima a Catherine a reflexionar sobre estas verdades y a mirar en el amor puro: “Oh queridísima hija a quien tanto amo, tú que eres mi esposa, levántate por encima de ti misma y abre los ojos de tu mente. Mírame, Bondad infinita, y mira mi amor indescriptible por ti...”.

El Entendimiento Conduce a un Mayor Deseo por Dios

Una mayor comprensión de quién es Dios puede actuar como una chispa, encendiendo un deseo explosivo de estar unidos a Dios. Empezaremos a ver a Dios como amor, experimentando por nosotros mismos lo que Juan escribió en su primera carta que “Dios es amor”. Nuestro anhelo por Él solo aumentará a medida que nuestra mente atraviese esta realidad y nos encontremos anhelando “la unión con Dios, la base de nuestro ser y Belleza suprema...”. Catherine estaba encantada de que creciera su propio deseo por la verdad de Dios que brotaba de lo más profundo de su alma. A medida que profundizaba en la bondad infinita de Dios, su corazón se apegaba más y más hacia Él, como una cueva cavernosa sin fin a la vista: “Cuanto más entro en ti, lo más que descubro y entre más descubro, más que te busco. Tú eres insaciable, tú en cuyo fondo el alma se sacia, pero permanece siempre hambrienta de ti, sedienta de ti, Trinidad eterna, anhelando verte con la luz en tu luz.”

En Cristo,

Padre Brian J. Soliven
