THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"They will seize and persecute you... and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name." -Luke 21: 16-18

This photo was taken during a dinner in Rome in 2009, with fellow seminarians. Our ordination to the priesthood would follow a year later. On the far left is Michele Kayal from Lebanon. When he returned to Syria, he was kidnapped by Islamic terrorists and presumed murdered. His crime? He was a faithful Catholic priest.

Reflection question:

How can I increase my devotion to serving God?

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear St. Mary's Parishioners,

What is your life built on? It's a fantastic question to reflect upon. Another way of looking at this philosophical mountain is asking ourselves, what do you hold most dear? It's often the thing in your life that you spend the most time on. Time and what we value tend to correlate with one another. For example, the famed NBA basketball player Kobe Bryant, was renowned for his relentless work ethic. In a television interview, he explained his approach:

If your job is to try to be the best basketball player you can be you have to practice, you have to train. You wanna train as much as you can as often as you can. So, if you get up at 10 in the morning, train at 12. Train for 2 hours, 12-2pm, you have to let your body recover. You get back out, you train. You start training at 6pm, train from 6-8pm and now you go home, you shower, you eat dinner, you go to bed, you wake up and you do it again.

Those are two sessions. Now imagine, you wake up at 3am and you train at 4am, go 4-6am, come home breakfast, relax. Now you're back at it again, 9-11am, you relax and now all of a sudden, you're back at it again, 2-4pm. Now you back at it again, 7-9pm. Look how much more training I have done by simply starting at 4am. So now you do that as the years go on the separation that you have with your competitors and your peers, just grows larger and larger and larger and larger and larger and larger.

Kobe valued winning a championship. His life reflected that. We must admire him for it. Jesus in this Sunday gospel goes to the heart of what we tend to value in this world and smashes it in the face. Our Lord shockingly says, "All that you see here (referring to the "costly stones" that adorned the Holy Temple in Jerusalem) – the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down." (Cf. Luke 21:5) Then he predicts what will happen to those of us who decide to value our faith above all else. He warns, "they will seize and persecute you... You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name..." (Cf. Luke 21:16-18) This sounds radical to many. Yet for those who value and build their lives upon the love of Christ and fidelity to his Church, how can we choose anything else, if not him?

A Slave of Jesus Christ,

Fr. Brian J. Solivan

The Gospel predicts end times; our challenge though is to live faithfully now. St. Vincent often asked this simple question: "What would Jesus Christ do, if he were in my place now?"

Ask yourself "What would Jesus Christ do?" and then put your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box so that those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving.

TRIGÉSIMO-TERCER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

13 de noviembre de 2022

Pero su perseverancia será su salvación (Lucas 21:5-19).

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados Feligreses de Santa María,

¿Sobre qué está construida tu vida? Es una pregunta fantástica en cual reflexionar. Otra forma de mirar esta montaña filosófica es preguntarnos, ¿qué es lo que más quieres? Por lo regular es la cosa en tu vida, en la que pasas más tiempo. El tiempo y lo que valoramos tienden a correlacionarse entre sí. Por ejemplo, el famoso jugador de baloncesto de la NBA, Kobe Bryant, era conocido por su ética de trabajo implacable. En una entrevista televisiva, explicó su enfoque:

Si tu trabajo es intentar ser el mejor jugador de baloncesto que puedas ser, tienes que practicar, tienes que entrenar. Tienes que querer entrenar tanto como puedas y tan seguido como puedas. Así que, si te levantas a las 10 de la mañana, entrena a las 12. Entrena 2 horas, de 12-2pm, tienes que dejar que tu cuerpo se recupere. Vuelves a salir, entrenas. Empiezas a entrenar a las 6 de la tarde, entrenas de 6 a 8 de la tarde y ahora te vas a casa, te duchas, cenas, te acuestas, te despiertas y lo vuelves a hacer de nuevo.

Son dos sesiones. Ahora imagina, que te despiertas a las 3a.m. y entrenas a las 4am, vas de 4 a 6am., vuelves a casa, desayunas, te relajas. Ahora vuelves a hacerlo de nuevo, de 9 a 11am, te relajas y ahora, de repente, vuelves a hacerlo de nuevo, de 2pm a 4pm. Ahora vuelve a hacerlo, de 7 a 9pm. Mira cuánto más entrenamiento he hecho simplemente comenzando a las 4am. Así que ahora haces eso a medida que pasan los años en la separación que tienes con tus competidores y tus compañeros, simplemente crece más y más y más y más y más grande.

Kobe valoraba ganar un campeonato. Su vida reflejó eso. Debemos admirarlo por ello. Jesús en este evangelio dominical va al corazón de lo que tendemos a valorar en este mundo y lo aplasta en la cara. Nuestro Señor dice impactantemente: “Todo lo que ves aquí (refiriéndose a las “piedras costosas” que adornaban el Templo Sagrado de Jerusalén) – vendrán días en que no quedará piedra sobre piedra que no sea derribada. (Cf. Lucas 21, 5) Luego predice lo que sucederá con aquellos de nosotros que decidimos valorar nuestra fe por encima de todo. Advierte: “Mas seréis entregados aun por vuestros padres, y hermanos, y parientes, y amigos; y matarán a algunos de vosotros; y seréis aborrecidos de todos por causa de mi nombre. ...” (Cf. Lc 21,16-18). edifican su vida sobre el amor de Cristo y la fidelidad a su Iglesia, ¿cómo podemos elegir otra cosa que no sea él?

Un Esclavo de Jesucristo,

Padre Brian J. Salinen

¿Qué es Planificación Familiar Natural?

La planificación familiar natural moderna es 100% natural y hasta un 99% efectiva como método de planificación familiar que trata la fertilidad como un proceso normal y sano. Es el único método aprobado de la Iglesia Católica para planear una familia. Este método está basado en la observación de los cambios en el cuerpo de la mujer que reflejan de una manera clara y confiable sus periodos fértiles e infértiles. La pareja que usa PNF interpreta esta información y luego decide si se abstiene o entabla relaciones íntimas durante el tiempo fértil dependiendo de su intención de planificación familiar. También, la PNF beneficia la relación y comunicación de una pareja, por ejemplo, la tasa de divorcio es casi nula entre las parejas que la practican.
