FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear St. Mary's Parishioners,

Take a Look around the church. You'll notice the liturgical colors in the sanctuary have shifted from green to purple. It's a visual shock to capture your seeing eye, to lure you into spiritual things yet unseen. The Church has entered into the holy season of Advent. The name comes from the Latin word "Adventus", literally meaning "coming" or "arrival." We have been eagerly waiting for the "arrival" of this someone whose presence has been long anticipated. In fact, we Christians have been waiting for over 2,000 years. It's hard to keep our attention blazing with such a delay, for even the hottest fires eventually grow dim and cold. Knowing this human proclivity, Advent is born in the life of the Church. Its visual cues are designed to rekindle our drowsy heart towards the promise of the final return of Jesus Christ.

The great Advent wreath makes its reappearance this Sunday at Mass to underscore this teaching. The lighting of each candle each Sunday, leading closer and closer to this day of return, reminds us that Our Lord will soon come back. Reopen your eyes; refocus your gaze. Ignite the fire of faith once again. In the Gospel passage, Jesus said to his disciples, "Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come." (Cf. Mark 13:33). Each Advent is an opportunity for us to take a deep, honest look at our spiritual health. We should ask ourselves, "How am I doing with my relationship with Jesus Christ?" "Have I allowed the world to distract me from what truly matters?" "If Jesus returned today, would I be ready to stand in judgment before him?"

However, we answer these questions, Advent is the perfect time to make ready. Over the next few weeks we will have many chances to grow in our faith. Take advantage! Most importantly, if you haven't been to the Sacrament of Confession in a long time, Advent is the perfect time. We no longer have to carry the heavy burden of sin that weighs on our shoulders.

A Slave of Jesus Christ,

Fr. Brian J. Salonen

ST. MARY’S ADULT MINISTRY

Have you experienced grief from the loss of a loved one, maybe the loss of a job, a home, or a pet? You also may be grieving for someone you’re currently caregiving with an illness. St. Mary’s is in the process of developing a grief support system. If you feel a calling to use your talents as a support grief counselor, we will be having training the weekend of 1/20 to 1/21/24 in the Parish Hall. You do not need to have a degree for this ministry just a sense of caring for your fellow brothers and sisters. Seating is limited and the deadline to register is 1/12/24, no cost is involved. For more information or to register for the training, please text Yolanda Garcia-Martinez at (707)567-9130 or email her at ygarmar@aol.com and put “Grief Support Training” in the subject line.

PRIMER DOMINGO DE ADVIENTO

3 de diciembre de 2023

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Estimados Feligreses de Santa María,

Échele un vistazo a la iglesia. Notará que los colores litúrgicos en el santuario han cambiado del verde al morado. Es un impacto visual que capta el ojo que lo ve, para atraerle a cosas espirituales que aún no ha visto. La Iglesia ha entrado en el tiempo sagrado de Adviento. El nombre proviene de la palabra latina "Adventus", que literalmente significa "venida" o "llegada". Hemos estado esperando ansiosamente la "llegada" de alguien cuya presencia se esperaba desde hace mucho tiempo. De hecho, los cristianos hemos estado esperando durante más de 2,000 años. Es difícil mantener nuestra atención ardiente con tanta demora, porque incluso los fuegos más calientes eventualmente se apagan y se enfrían. Conociendo esta proclividad humana, nace el Adviento en la vida de la Iglesia. Sus señales visuales están diseñadas para encender de nuevo nuestro corazón adormecido, hacia la promesa del regreso final de Jesucristo.

La gran corona de Adviento reaparece este domingo en la Misa para enfatizar esta enseñanza. Encender una vela cada domingo, acercándonos cada vez más a este día de regreso, nos recuerda que Nuestro Señor regresará pronto. Vuelva a abrir los ojos; vuelva a centrar su mirada. Encienda una vez más el fuego de la fe. En el pasaje del Evangelio, Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: "Velen y estén preparados, porque no saben cuándo llegará el momento". (Cf. Marcos 13:33). Cada Adviento es una oportunidad para que echemos una mirada profunda y honesta a nuestra salud espiritual. Deberíamos preguntarnos: "¿Cómo me va en mi relación con Jesucristo?" "¿He permitido que el mundo me distraiga de lo que realmente importa?" "Si Jesús regresara hoy, ¿estaría yo dispuesto a comparecer ante él y ser juzgado?"

Independientemente de cómo respondamos estas preguntas, el Adviento es el momento perfecto para prepararnos. Durante las próximas semanas tendremos muchas oportunidades de crecer en nuestra fe. ¡Aprovéchelas! Lo más importante es que si no ha asistido al Sacramento de la Confesión en mucho tiempo, el Adviento es el momento perfecto. Ya no tenemos que cargar con la carga pesada del pecado que pesa sobre nuestros hombros.

Un Esclavo de Jesucristo,

Padre Brian J. Solinen
