FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear St. Mary's Parishioners,

In the beginning of the month, I had the great pleasure of visiting the students at Notre Dame School at St. Joseph. Mrs. Bauer, the principal, invited me to spend time with the kids as part of the activities of Catholic Schools Week. I happily accepted. The vast majority of my interaction with you and the students happens on a weekend during Sunday Mass. As we know, it's not the ideal time to have meaningful conversations. There are simply too many people. At the school, we separated the 300 kids into two manageable groups. I shared with them my upbringing in Elk Grove, how I knew when God was calling me into the priesthood during my junior year of college at UC Davis, my favorite food (fried chicken!) etc. The fun part of the day was the question and answer session. When you give a child the freedom to ask anything, it reveals the curiosity of their little minds and hearts. One little girl, probably in the third grade, gently raised her hand. "Father," she said slowly, "How do we know the Scriptures are true?" I was stunned. What a brilliant question! It showed me her inquisitive and critical mind. How do we know indeed, that what we believe is true? The great beauty of our rich and ancient Catholic faith is that smarter and more brilliant people than you and I, have wondered about these same questions. Over the centuries, the Church has outlined and developed the rationale of the reasons "why" we believe what we wholeheartedly teach. Never, absolutely, never has the Church simply relied on, "Because the pope said so."

Last Sunday, I was excited to officially announce an amazing opportunity for our parish. This November, we are embarking upon a pilgrimage to the very places where our Church began – the Holy Land. On our website (and this week we have a Spanish translation of the same itinerary that was in the bulletin in english) you will see a detailed itinerary of the amazing sites we will visit. To see and touch the very places where Jesus walked will change how you read the Bible. It will open up the biblical world in fresh new ways. Christ will come alive. For the past few Sunday's we've been hearing in the Gospel readings the famous account of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, which one Scripture scholar called, "the greatest sermon ever preached." (Cf. Matthew 5). Imagine now reading that very sermon on the exact mountain he said it. The glistening sunlight reflecting off the surface of the Sea of Galilee will be in the background. The same green, soft grass will be beneath your feet. You will hear the words of Jesus like never before: "Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have come not to abolish but to fulfill." (Cf. Matthew 5:17)

If you have ever wanted to go to the Holy Land, I invite you to consider this opportunity. The company I contracted with to lead the pilgrimage is the industry standard. They use some of the best guides and hotels in Israel. I know for many, it's simply a burden to take that much time and resources away from our work and family, as much as we'd like to go. The great beauty of our faith is that we don't have to travel across the world to encounter the Risen Jesus. A pilgrimage helps, but is it not a necessity to encounter his love. Christ in the Gospel today is revealing his divine authority in that Sermon on the Mount. He is saying to them, I am God in the flesh. I have come to fulfill the Jewish law in the Old Covenant. For us Catholics, all we have to do is come to Mass to see Jesus in all his Eucharist glory.

A Slave of Jesus Christ,

Fr. Brian J. Soliman

SÉPTIMO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

19 de febrero de 2023

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados Feligreses de Santa María,

El jueves pasado tuve el gran placer de visitar a los estudiantes de la Escuela Notre Dame en la Parroquia de San Jose. La Sra. Bauer, la directora de la escuela, me invitó a pasar tiempo con los niños como parte de las actividades de la Semana de las Escuelas Católicas. Felizmente Acepté. La mayor parte de interacción con ustedes y los estudiantes ocurre el fin de semana durante la Misa dominical. Como ustedes saben, no es el momento ideal para tener conversaciones significativas. Simplemente hay demasiada gente. En la escuela, separamos a los 300 niños en dos grupos manejables. Compartí con ellos mi crianza en Elk Grove, cómo me di cuenta del llamado de Dios al sacerdocio durante mi primer año de universidad en UC Davis, mi comida favorita (¡pollo frito!), etc. La parte más divertida del día fue la sesión de preguntas y respuestas. Cuando le das a un niño la libertad de preguntar cualquier cosa, revelan la curiosidad de sus pequeñas mentes y corazones. Una niña, probablemente en el tercer grado, levantó su mano. "Padre", dijo lentamente, "¿cómo sabemos que las Escrituras son verdaderas?" Me sentí anonadado. ¡Qué brillante pregunta! Me mostró su mente inquisitiva y analítica. ¿Cómo sabemos ciertamente, que lo que creemos es verdad? La gran belleza de nuestra rica y antigua fe católica es que personas más inteligentes y brillantes que ustedes y yo, han reflexionado sobre estas mismas preguntas. A lo largo de los siglos, la Iglesia ha guiado y desarrollado la lógica de las razones por las que creemos lo que enseñamos de todo corazón. Nunca, absolutamente, nunca la Iglesia se ha basado simplemente en "Porque nosotros lo decimos".

Estoy emocionado de anunciar oficialmente una oportunidad increíble para nuestra parroquia. Este noviembre, nos embarcaremos en una peregrinación a los mismos lugares donde comenzó la Iglesia: Tierra Santa. En el boletín de este domingo, verán un itinerario detallado de los increíbles sitios en los que oraremos y visitaremos. Ver y tocar los mismos lugares donde caminó Jesús cambiará la forma en que leerán la Biblia. Abrirá el mundo bíblico en formas nuevas y frescas. Cristo cobrará vida. Durante los últimos domingos hemos estado escuchando en las lecturas del Evangelio el famoso relato del Sermón de Jesús en el monte, que un erudito de las Escrituras llamó, "el gran sermón jamás predicado". (Cf. Mateo 5). Imagínese ahora leer ese mismo sermón en el monte exacto en el que lo dijo. La luz del sol reluciente que se refleja en la superficie del Mar de Galilea estará en el fondo. El mismo pasto verde y suave estará bajo sus pies. Escuchará las palabras de Jesús como nunca antes: "No crean que he venido a suprimir la Ley o los Profetas. He venido, no para deshacer, sino para llevar a la forma perfecta." (Mateo 5:17)

Si alguna vez ha querido ir a Tierra Santa, le invito a considerar esta oportunidad. La empresa que contraté para dirigir la peregrinación es el estándar en la industria. Usan algunos de los mejores guías y hoteles en Israel. Por mucho que quisiéramos ir, sé que para muchos de ustedes es simplemente una carga tomar tanto tiempo y recursos de nuestro trabajo y familia. La gran belleza de nuestra fe es que no tenemos que viajar por todo el mundo para encontrar a Jesús Resucitado. Una peregrinación ayuda, pero no es una necesidad para encontrar su amor. Cristo en el Evangelio de hoy está revelando su autoridad divina en ese Sermón del Monte. Él les está diciendo, Yo soy Dios en la carne. He venido a cumplir la ley judía en la Antigua Alianza. Para nosotros los católicos, todo lo que tenemos que hacer es venir a Misa para ver a Jesús en toda su gloria eucarística.

Un Esclavo de Jesucristo,

Padre Brian J. Solinen
