FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear St. Mary's Parishioners,

If someone stopped you on the street and asked you to describe God, how would you answer? It's a great question to bring to your private prayer. It reveals how you relate to Him. If you see him as cold and distant, you will never talk to him on a daily basis. If you only pray when you need something, the goodness of God will be dependent upon whether or not he answered the prayers in the way you wanted. If God is seen as merciful, just, and lavish with his love, He will be seen as our Father in Heaven. Therefore, we are his sons and daughters. God will not simply be seen as some distant figure hiding majestically behind the clouds. He will be seen as someone intimately intertwined with our lives. He cares for us, even in the smallest of things, like any good parent. In other words, if God is our Heavenly Father, he is not indifferent to us; after all, what loving earthly mother or father could be?

The Scripture readings that we have today demonstrate the magnificence of this God of ours. We hear in the First Reading God speaking directly to Moses: "tell the Israelites: You have seen for yourselves how I treated the Egyptians and how I bore you up on eagle wings and brought you here to myself. Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people, though all the earth is mine." He's telling them I have chosen you, yes you, from all the different people of the earth, for a special, specific mission. If they remain faithful by following all his commandments and teachings, God would make the Israelite people into a "kingdom of priests." This is an extremely important moment in history and for the entire salvation of all of humanity. God is telling them I have a plan to save the human race from their sins. As we know terribly well, we're constantly tempted to stray from God. We fall into sin time and time again. Our eyes are meant to loftily gaze heavenward, to the heights, yet clumsily veer to the glittery, shining distraction of the earth.

We're meant for mightier things, He tells us. You and I are created to be this "kingdom of priests." The original Hebrew phrase this was written is mamlekheth kōhanim. It also has the connotation of a "royal priesthood". God is offering in this pivotal moment the restoration of what was lost with Adam in the Book of Genesis. God gave our first father "dominion over the earth" in Genesis 1:26. Then God gave him his priestly duties to "work and guard" the garden of Eden, which are priestly roles. Sadly, Adam lost his royalty and priesthood by rebelling against God. He traded his God-given inheritance for the worthless dirt of sin. This battle now rages in each of us. Will we choose the offer of this royal restored priesthood of God, or fall back and repeat the same mistake of Adam?

A Slave of Jesus Christ,

Fr. Brian J. Salinen

UNDÉCIMO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

18 de junio de 2023

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados Feligreses de Santa María,

Si alguien te detuviera en la calle y te pidiera que describiera a Dios, ¿cómo responderías? Es una gran pregunta para tomar en cuenta cuando haces tu oración privada. Esta revela cómo te relacionas con Él. Si lo ves frío y distante, no le hablaras a diario. Si solo oras cuando necesita algo, la bondad de Dios dependerá de si respondió o no a tus oraciones de la manera que querías. Si Dios es visto como misericordioso, justo y generoso con su amor, será visto como nuestro Padre Celestial. Por lo tanto, somos sus hijos e hijas. Dios no será visto simplemente como una figura distante escondida majestuosamente detrás de las nubes. Él será visto como alguien íntimamente entrelazado con nuestras vidas. Él se preocupa por nosotros, incluso en las cosas más pequeñas, como cualquier buen padre. En otras palabras, si Dios es nuestro Padre Celestial, no le somos indiferentes; después de todo, ¿qué padre o madre terrenal amoroso podría ser?

Las lecturas de las Escrituras que tenemos hoy demuestran la magnificencia de este Dios nuestro. Escuchamos en la Primera Lectura a Dios hablando directamente a Moisés: “esto anunciarás a los hijos de Israel: ‘Ustedes han visto cómo castigué a los egipcios y de qué manera los he levantado a ustedes sobre alas de águila y los he traído a mí. Ahora bien, si escuchan mi voz y guardan mi alianza, serán mi especial tesoro entre todos los pueblos, aunque toda la tierra es mía.’ Él les está diciendo que, te he elegido a ti, sí a ti, de todas las diferentes personas de la tierra, para una misión especial y específica. Si se mantienen fieles siguiendo todos sus mandamientos y enseñanzas, Dios hará del pueblo de Israel un “reino de sacerdotes”. Este es un momento sumamente importante en la historia y para la salvación total de toda la humanidad. Dios les está diciendo que tiene un plan para salvar a la raza humana de sus pecados. Como sabemos muy bien, estamos constantemente tentados a desviarnos de Dios. Caemos en pecado una y otra vez. Nuestros ojos están destinados a mirar con altivez hacia el cielo, a las alturas, pero torpemente se desvían hacia la distracción brillante y resplandeciente de la tierra.

Estamos hechos para cosas más grandiosas, nos dice. Tú y yo somos creados para ser este “reino de sacerdotes”. La frase hebrea original que se escribió es mamlekheth kōhanim. También tiene la connotación de un “sacerdocio real”. Dios está ofreciendo en este momento crucial la restauración de lo que se perdió con Adán en el Libro de Génesis. Dios le dio a nuestro primer padre “dominio sobre la tierra” en Génesis 1:26. Entonces Dios le dio sus deberes sacerdotales de “trabajar y vigilar” el jardín del Edén, lo cual son roles sacerdotales. Lamentablemente, Adán perdió su realeza y sacerdocio al rebelarse contra Dios. Cambió su herencia dada por Dios por la suculidad sin valor del pecado. Esta batalla ahora ruge en cada uno de nosotros. ¿Escogeremos la oferta de este sacerdocio real restaurado de Dios, o retrocederemos y repetiremos el mismo error de Adán?

Un Esclavo de Jesucristo,

Padre Brian J. Salinen
