FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear St. Mary's Parishioners,

It has begun. The most solemn stretch of Christianity has arrived – Holy Week. The entire human life of Jesus Christ on earth, all thirty-three years, will culminate this week. Pay attention to the readings. Attend all of the liturgies as you can, from Holy Thursday, Good Friday and finally Easter Sunday. The drama of our salvation will unfold before our very eyes. To understand this solemn week more deeply, keep the book of Genesis in the background. We must remember how the mess of sin first started. In Genesis chapter three, we see the fall of humanity with Original Sin through temptation of that darn piece of fruit: “Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God really say, ‘You must not eat from any tree in the garden?’” (Cf. Genesis 3:1). The serpent is the fallen angel Lucifer. He rebelled against God shortly after he was created because of his idiotic pride. He thought he could live without God.

Now he sets his sights on corrupting God's most valuable creation – humanity. “When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it.” From this point on sin and death rushes into the world like water bursting through a broken dam. Our heart which was created for relationship with God (Cf. Genesis 1:27) goes astray. We now try to replace the love of God with the same, boring, counterfeit loves: wealth, pleasure, power, and honor. These classic four false loves will always fail us. They can never deliver the lasting happiness we sole desire. Yet, we still chose them over and over again. C.S. Lewis, the famous English author and convert to Christianity, articulated this phenomena perfectly when he said, “Human history is the long terrible story of man trying to find something other than God which will make him happy.”

How can God get us back? This is the ultimate question. If you were God, how would you win humanity back? Your biggest problem would be free will. You cannot force us to love God, otherwise, you remove our ability to choose. Love by its very definition needs to be a free choice. Enter the genius and beauty of Holy Week. God's rescue mission will be on full display in the most unexpected of ways. This Palm Sunday, the huge crowds will welcome Jesus as a conquering king. They think he will come like the same, tired, tyrants of human history that think power and military might means victory. That is why the people greet Jesus with the palm branches as the ancient custom demands. “He will slaughter our enemies and rebuild the Jewish kingdom!” They thought wrongly. You see they wanted more wealth, pleasure, power, and honor. But Jesus is not here for that. He enters Jerusalem to conquer something much more precious – us. He will do it, not through the sword, but with his blood. The same crowd that cheered Jesus with the Palm branches will suddenly take a darker, more sinister turn. Instead of “hosanna”, these same voices will now chant, “CRUCIFY HIM! CRUCIFY HIM!” His death upon the glorious cross will be the greatest act of love humanity will ever encounter. My friends, get ready for Holy Week.

A Slave of Jesus Christ,

Fr. Brian J. Sullivan

DOMINGO DE RAMOS DE LA PASION DEL SEÑOR

24 de marzo de 2024

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Estimados Feligreses de Santa María,

Ha comenzado. Ha llegado el tramo más solemne de la cristiandad: la Semana Santa. Toda la vida humana de Jesucristo en la tierra, los treinta y tres años, culminarán esta semana. Preste atención a las lecturas. Asista a todas las liturgias que pueda, desde el Jueves Santo, Viernes Santo y finalmente el Domingo de Resurrección. El drama de nuestra salvación se desarrollará ante nuestros propios ojos. Para entender más profundamente esta semana solemne, mantenga el libro de Génesis en mente. Debemos recordar cómo comenzó el error del pecado. En Génesis capítulo tres, vemos la caída de la humanidad con el Pecado Original a través de la tentación de ese maldito fruto: “La serpiente era el más astuto de todos los animales del campo que Dios había hecho. Dijo a la mujer: «¿Es cierto que Dios les ha dicho: No coman de ninguno de los árboles del jardín?» (Cf. Génesis 3: 1). La serpiente es Lucifer, el ángel caído. Se rebeló contra Dios poco después de haber sido creado debido a su orgullo idiota. Pensó que podía vivir sin Dios.

Ahora pone su mira en corromper la creación más valiosa de Dios: la humanidad. “Y como viese la mujer que el árbol era bueno para comer, apetecible a la vista y excelente para lograr sabiduría, tomó de su fruto y comió, y dio también a su marido, que igualmente comió.” (Genesis 3:6) A partir de este momento, el pecado y la muerte se precipitan en el mundo como el agua que brota de un dique roto. Nuestro corazón, que fue creado para la relación con Dios (CF. Genesis 1:27) se desvía. Ahora tratamos de reemplazar el amor de Dios con los mismos amores falsos y aburridos: riqueza, placer, poder y honor. Estos cuatro clásico amores falsos siempre nos fallarán. Nunca pueden entregar la felicidad duradera que deseamos. Sin embargo, todavía los elegimos una y otra vez. C.S. Lewis, el famoso autor inglés y convertido al cristianismo, articuló perfectamente este fenómeno cuando dijo: “La historia humana es la larga y terrible historia del hombre tratando de encontrar algo que no sea Dios para que lo haga feliz”.

¿Cómo nos puede recuperar Dios? Esta es la pregunta definitiva. Si fueras Dios, ¿cómo recuperarías a la humanidad? Tu mayor problema sería la voluntad libre. No puede obligarnos a amar a Dios, de lo contrario, nos quitaría la capacidad de elegir. El amor por su propia definición necesita ser una elección libre. Entre la genialidad y la belleza de la Semana Santa. La misión de rescate de Dios estará en plena exhibición de la manera más inesperada. Este Domingo de Ramos, las grandes multitudes darán la bienvenida a Jesús como un rey conquistador. Piensan que vendrá como los mismos tiranos de la historia humana que piensan que el poder y el poderío militar significan victoria. Por eso el pueblo recibe a Jesús con las palmas como manda la antigua costumbre. “¡Matará a nuestros enemigos y reconstruirá el reino judío!” Pensaron mal. Querían más riqueza, placer, poder y honor. Pero Jesús no está aquí para eso. Entra en Jerusalén para conquistar algo mucho más precioso: a nosotros. Lo hará, no a través de la espada, sino con su sangre. La misma multitud que vitoreaba a Jesús con las ramas de Palma, de repente tomará un giro más oscuro, más siniestro. En lugar de “hosanna”, estas mismas voces ahora cantarán, “¡CRUCIFICALO! ¡CRUCIFICALO!” Su muerte en la cruz gloriosa será el mayor acto de amor que la humanidad jamás encontrará. Mis amigos, prepárense para la Semana Santa.

Un Esclavo de Jesucristo,

Padre Brian J. Salinen
