FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear St. Mary's Parishioners,

The red light on my office phone is blinking wildly indicating someone has left a voicemail. After I press the "check messages" button, the robotic female voice commands me, "Please enter your code". I dial the four digit password. "New message received, left at 11:42am". "Good morning Father," says a young man. "My name is Michael" (name changed for privacy). "Does St. Mary's have a young adult group? I've been looking for a group of Catholic's my age. Our culture has become more and more godless that I feel I need to surround myself with people who are like-minded. Sometimes it can be lonely..." That last sentence, "It can be lonely", struck me in the heart. It reminded me of when I was a young college junior at UC Davis. I was starting to take my Catholic faith more seriously at this point in my life but I was having difficulty finding peers who wanted to love the Lord in the same way.. Afterall, Davis, much like most college campuses, are notorious for being hostile to religion in general and the Catholic Church in particular. Christian beliefs are roundly mocked as intolerant and backwards, especially if you maintain traditional beliefs on the hot-button issues of our age, like abortion and human sexuality. Oftentimes you feel like a lone blade of green grass in the middle of dry desert dunes.

This sense of loneliness only seems to be growing wider. This past Tuesday, the Surgeon General of the United States, Dr. Vivek Murth, released a new advisory stating that "In recent years, about one-in-two adults in America reported experiencing loneliness. And that was before the COVID-19 pandemic cut off so many of us from friends, loved ones, and support systems." Research consistently shows that "loneliness and isolation are linked to sleep problems, inflammation and immune changes in younger adults. In older people, they're tied to symptoms such as pain, insomnia, depression, anxiety and shorter life span. In people of all ages, they may be associated with higher risks of heart disease, stroke, diabetes, addiction, suicidality and self-harm, and dementia." (www.hhs.gov)

This should not surprise us. The Book of Genesis revealed that we are made in "God's image and likeness" (Cf. Genesis 1:27). God is a Trinity of three persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We are reminded of this very fact every time we make the sign of the cross over our bodies. God himself is a relationship of love. Therefore, our own happiness will only be found in love, not in material things or pleasure. We're not created in the image and likeness of a fancy car or designer jeans.

Knowing our culture is desperately hurting for authentic Christian relationships, I have always envisioned my ministry as a priest facilitating stronger relationships. Now that I have the privilege of serving St. Mary's, my eye is constantly looking for ways to build community. This is no small task. We're all flawed human beings, bound to have internal conflict. But we must persevere nonetheless. It's our God-given nature. As Christians, we are called "with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love" (Cf. Ephesians 4:2). As one of these steps, I would like to invite all young adults ages 18-39 to our Memorial Day hike advertised on the cover of this bulletin. This particular age group is seeing the largest secularization process we've ever seen in our history. Each decade, young people in the US are becoming less and less religious. We must build them up one holy friendship at a time.

A Slave of Jesus Christ,

Fr. Brian J. Sullivan

SEXTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA

14 de mayo de 2023

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados Feligreses de Santa María,

La luz roja del teléfono de mi oficina parpadeaba sin para, lo que indica que alguien había dejado un mensaje de voz. Después de presionar el botón "escuchar mensajes", la voz femenina robótica me ordena: "Por favor, ingrese su contraseña". Marco la contraseña de cuatro dígitos. "Nuevo mensaje recibido, dejado a las 11:42am". "Buenos días Padre", dice un joven. "Mi nombre es Michael" (se cambió el nombre por privacidad). "¿Tiene Santa María un grupo de jóvenes adultos? He estado buscando un grupo de católicos de mi edad. Nuestra cultura se ha vuelto cada vez más atea, por lo que siento la necesidad de rodearme de personas que tengan ideas afines. A veces puede ser muy solitario..." Esa última frase, "Puede ser solitario", me llegó hasta el corazón. Me recordé cuando era un joven universitario en UC Davis. Estaba empezando a tomar mi fe católica más en serio en este momento de mi vida, pero tenía dificultades para encontrar compañeros que quisieran amar al Señor de la misma manera. Después de todo, Davis, al igual que la mayoría de los campus universitarios, son conocidos por ser hostiles a la religión en general y a la Iglesia Católica en particular. Se burlan rotundamente de las creencias cristianas como intolerantes y retrógradas, especialmente si mantienes las creencias tradicionales sobre los temas candentes de nuestra época, como el aborto y la sexualidad humana. A menudo te sientes como una hoja solitaria de hierba verde en medio de secas dunas del desierto.

Esta sensación de soledad solo parece estar aumentando más. El martes pasado, el Cirujano General de los Estados Unidos, el Dr. Vivek Murth, emitió un nuevo aviso que indica que "En los últimos años, aproximadamente uno de cada dos adultos en los Estados Unidos informó haber experimentado soledad. Y eso fue antes de que la pandemia de COVID-19 privara a muchos de nosotros de convivir con amigos, seres queridos y sistemas de apoyo". La investigación muestra consistentemente que "la soledad y el aislamiento están relacionados con problemas para dormir, inflamación y cambios inmunológicos en adultos jóvenes. En las personas mayores, están vinculados a síntomas como dolor, insomnio, depresión, ansiedad y una vida más corta. En personas de todas las edades, pueden estar asociados con un mayor riesgo de enfermedad cardíaca, accidente cerebrovascular, diabetes, adicción, tendencias suicidas y autolesiones, y demencia". (www.hhs.gov)

Esto no debería sorprendernos. El Libro del Génesis revela que estamos hechos "a imagen y semejanza de Dios" (Cf. Génesis 1,27). Dios es una Trinidad de tres personas, Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. Se nos recuerda este mismísimo hecho cada vez que hacemos la señal de la cruz sobre nuestros cuerpos. Dios mismo es una relación de amor. Por lo tanto, nuestra propia felicidad sólo se encontrará en el amor, no en las cosas materiales ni en el placer. No estamos creados a imagen y semejanza de un automóvil lujoso o jeans de diseñador.

Sabiendo que nuestra cultura sufre desesperadamente relaciones cristianas auténticas, siempre imaginé mi ministerio como sacerdote facilitando relaciones más fuertes. Ahora que tengo el privilegio de servir en Santa María, mi ojo está constantemente buscando formas de construir una comunidad. Esto no es tarea fácil. Todos somos seres humanos con defectos, obligados a tener conflictos internos. Pero debemos perseverar a pesar de todo. Es nuestra naturaleza dada por Dios. Como cristianos, estamos llamados "Sean humildes, amables, comprensivos, y sopórtense unos a otros con amor." (Cf. Efesios 4:2). Como uno de estos pasos, me gustaría invitar a todos los jóvenes adultos entre 18 a 39 años a nuestra caminata del Día Memorial, el cual esta anunciado en la portada de este boletín. Este grupo de edad en particular está experimentando el proceso de secularización más grande que jamás hayamos visto en nuestra historia. Cada década, los jóvenes de los EE. UU se vuelven cada vez menos religiosos. Debemos edificarles con una amistad santa a la vez.

Un Esclavo de Jesucristo,

Padre Brian J. Salinen
