FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear St. Mary's Parishioners,

Something truly amazing has been happening over the past two weeks. Even though I've been a priest for over ten years now, thanks be to God, I have never seen anything like it. One after another, almost like a holy assembly line, people have been coming to confession after decades away from the Church. Son and daughters of God are coming to the stuffy, little, carpeted confessional that we have at St. Mary's parish, after twenty, thirty, forty, and over sixty years of living in spiritual darkness. It's the constant amount of people that are coming that is shocking. It's as if they all got together one day and decided to come at the same time. If you've had to wait in the confession line recently for a long time, let me take this opportunity to apologize for any inconvenience. When these souls return to Christ, a priest is wise to take his time and gently listen as they pour out the deepest, most shameful secrets of their lives.

This influx of people coming back to the practice of their Catholic faith through the confessional is revealing one obvious, glorious fact – the Holy Spirit is moving! It is through the power of the Holy Spirit that is moving the hearts of men and women to return to God who is all mercy and all loving. This day, the Church celebrates the moment when Jesus Christ sends us his Spirit as we heard in the Scripture readings: “On the evening of the first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst.... He breathed on them and said to them ‘Receive the Holy Spirit’” (Cf. John 20: 19-23). This same Holy Spirit was given to us when we were baptized; for most of us, it was when we were just infants. Then, when we received the Sacrament of Confirmation, the gifts of the mighty Holy Spirit that transformed the cowardly, fearful disciples into warriors of Christ, suddenly went boldly proclaiming Jesus Christ to an unbelieving world. You and I have the same Spirit, right now, pulsating through our very bodies and souls.

Yet, despite this great gift from above, we can stray from God and live below. These fickle hearts of ours can be entranced, with what St. John called, “the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life – (that) comes not from the Father but from the world” (Cf. 1 John 2:16). Regardless of how far we've fallen, the great truth of our Faith is that no sin is so grand as to eclipse the love of our Heavenly Father. We no longer have to carry the burden of shame from our past mistakes. If you have been away from the practice of your faith, or you think your sins are too ugly for God, come to that stuffy, little, shag carpeted confessional in St. Mary's. You will experience the Gospel in live action, “Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them...” (Cf. John 20:23). I only ask that you excuse the long lines.

A Slave of Jesus Christ,

Fr. Brian J. Salvaen

DOMINGO DE PENTECOSTES

28 de mayo de 2023

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados Feligreses de Santa María,

Algo realmente sorprendente ha estado sucediendo en las últimas dos semanas. A pesar de que he sido sacerdote por más de diez años, gracias a Dios, nunca había visto algo así. Uno tras otro, casi como una línea de montaje sagrada, la gente viene a confesarse después de décadas de estar alejados de la Iglesia. Hijos e hijas de Dios vienen al confesionario pequeño, alfombrado y mal ventilado que tenemos en la parroquia de Santa María, después de veinte, treinta, cuarenta y más de sesenta años de vivir en oscuridad espiritual. Es la cantidad constante de gente que viene es impactante. Es como si un día se hayan juntado todos y decidieran venir a la misma hora. Si recientemente ha tenido que esperar en la fila para confesarse durante mucho tiempo, permítame aprovechar esta oportunidad para disculparme por cualquier inconveniente. Cuando estas almas regresan a Cristo, un sacerdote sabe tomarse su tiempo y escuchar atentamente mientras revelan los secretos más profundos y vergonzosos de sus vidas.

Este influjo de personas que regresan a la práctica de su fe católica a través del confesionario, está revelando un hecho obvio y glorioso: ¡el Espíritu Santo está trabajando! Es a través del poder del Espíritu Santo que está moviendo los corazones de hombres y mujeres para que vuelvan al Dios que es todo misericordia y todo amor. Este día, la Iglesia celebra el momento en que Jesucristo nos envía este Espíritu como escuchamos en las lecturas bíblicas: “Ese mismo día, el primero después del sábado, los discípulos estaban reunidos por la tarde, con las puertas cerradas por miedo a los judíos. Llegó Jesús, se puso de pie en medio de ellos.... sopló sobre ellos y les dijo: Reciban el Espíritu Santo: a quienes descarguen de sus pecados, serán liberados, y a quienes se los retengan, les serán retenidos.” (cf. Juan 20, 19-23). Este mismo Espíritu Santo nos fue dado cuando fuimos bautizados; para la mayoría de nosotros, fue cuando éramos bebés. Luego, cuando recibimos el Sacramento de la Confirmación, los dones del poderoso Espíritu Santo que transformó a los discípulos cobardes y temerosos en guerreros de Cristo, de repente fueron a proclamar audazmente a Jesucristo en un mundo incrédulo. Tú y yo tenemos el mismo Espíritu, ahora mismo, pulsando a través de nuestros propios cuerpos y almas.

Sin embargo, a pesar de este gran regalo del cielo, podemos desviarnos de Dios y vivir abajo. Estos volubles corazones nuestros pueden estar extasiados, con lo que San Juan llamó, “Pues toda la corriente del mundo, -la codicia del hombre carnal, los ojos siempre ávidos, y la arrogancia de los ricos-, nada viene del Padre, sino del mundo” (Cf. 1 Juan 2:16). Independientemente de cuán bajo hayamos caído, la gran verdad de nuestra Fe es que ningún pecado es tan grande como para eclipsar el amor de nuestro Padre Celestial. Ya no tenemos que llevar la carga de la vergüenza de nuestros errores pasados. Si has estado alejado de la práctica de tu fe, o piensas que tus pecados son demasiado feos para Dios, ven a ese pequeño confesionario mal ventilado y alfombrado en Santa María. Experimentarás el Evangelio en acción viva, “A quienes les perdonen sus pecados, les serán perdonados...” (cf. Juan 20:23). Solo les pido que disculpen las largas filas.

Un Esclavo de Jesucristo,

Padre Brian J. Salinen
