HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear St. Mary's Parishioners:

What a wonderful gathering we had last Saturday! I think anyone who was able to come to the get-together will agree that it was a lot of fun. Our St. Mary's Youth Group came up with a 50's theme for the evening. The Solano Classic Car Club provided a dozen or so cars from the 50's and other decades for our perusal and examination. I especially enjoyed the 1966 Peterbilt with the extended sleeper cab exhibited by a member of the American Truck Historical Society. Music was provided by the School of Rock. The songs weren't quite from the 50's, but the high-school aged band members played and sang with much energy and talent. The burgers and hot dogs were grilled by our Knights of Columbus Council 4901 brothers. Carnival games were facilitated by the members of the youth group.

As always, we give thanks to God when we are able to come together as a parish and enjoy each other's company, some good food and some good fun. In addition to thanking our Creator and Redeemer, I want to thank our Youth Minister, Andreyra Arevalo, the members of St. Mary's Youth Group and their parents, the core team, Alvaro Arevalo, Andreyra's husband who is always so helpful, and the Knights of Columbus Council 4901. Thank you to all of you who donated raffle items and yummy desserts! Thank you to all of you who came and participated in the evening. After slogging through the past year of the pandemic and the restrictions and distancing that has gone along with it, I think we all enjoyed being in each other's company and visiting with each other. And, of course, by supporting the event, you support our youth group. God willing, we will have another parish gathering in the not too distant future.

As we continue to forge ahead during this Easter season and spring season, we are also fully in the "sacrament" season. Last Saturday our Notre Dame School Second Graders received the Eucharist for the first time, as they made their First Holy Communion. On Saturday afternoon, May 8th, Bishop Jaime Soto conferred the Notre Dame Seventh Graders the Sacrament of Confirmation. The students in our Religious Education program are also preparing for Confirmation and First Holy Communion. For most of the academic year, parents have been catechizing their children at home. Our catechists check in with our parents on a regular basis and Martha Batres-Martin, DRE, organized monthly meetings for the parents to come together for formation. At the beginning of each month, Sr. Eileen, Sr. Adriana, Fr. Steven, I and other catechists gave presentations on the material the parents would be teaching their children during that month. At the monthly meetings, parents had the chance to break-out in small groups with catechists and

We are in "classroom mode" now for the stretch run leading up to First Communion and Confirmation, as the Confirmation students and the First Communicants are meeting once a week for six weeks for catechesis in our parish hall. Please continue to pray for our younger parishioners who will be making their First Communion the weekend of June 5th and 6th and for our Confirmation students who will be confirmed in late August. And, please pray for their parents who work hard to pass on the faith to their children!

Finally, on Mothers' Day, we want to thank God for all of our mothers: those still living and those who have passed on to their eternal reward. We would not be here without our mothers. We take this occasion to pray for all mothers and especially to praise and honor our Blessed Mother. Under St. Mary's mantle, may all mothers find protection, guidance and consolation. St. Mary, pray for us!

In the Resurrected Lord,
Father Berg

Thanks!

We would like to extend a big thank you to all our fellow parishioners, who gave such generous donations towards the purchase of Easter plants. Your thoughtfulness enabled us to adorn St. Mary's with so many lovely Easter flowers. Thank you again for helping us honor our risen Christ,

Gratefully,
The Environment Committee

SEXTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA

9 de mayo de 2021

Jesús da este mandamiento a sus discípulos: ámense unos a otros como yo los he amado (Juan 15:9-17) o Juan 17:11b-19.

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados Feligreses de Santa María:

¡Qué maravillosa convivencia tuvimos el sábado pasado! Creo que cualquiera que haya podido asistir a la reunión estará de acuerdo en que fue muy divertido. Nuestro Grupo juvenil de Santa María se le ocurrió usar la temática de los años 50 para la noche. El Club de Autos Clásicos de Solano tuvo una docena de autos de los años 50 y otras décadas para nosotros poderlos ver con gran detalle y examinarlos con atención. Disfruté especialmente del Peterbilt del año 1966 con cabina extendida, exhibido por un miembro de la Sociedad Histórica de Camiones Americanos. Nos deleitamos con música en vivo con la banda Escuela de Rock (School of Rock). Las canciones no eran del todo de los años 50, pero los miembros de la banda compuesta por jóvenes de edad de escuela secundaria tocaron y cantaron con mucha energía y talento. Las hamburguesas y los perros calientes fueron preparados por nuestros hermanos de los Caballeros de Colón del Concilio 4901. Los juegos de carnaval fueron facilitados por los miembros del grupo juvenil.

Como siempre, damos gracias a Dios cuando tenemos la oportunidad de unirnos como parroquia y disfrutar de la compañía de uno del otro, de buena comida y algo de diversión. Además de dar las gracias a nuestro Creador y Redentor, quiero dar las gracias a nuestra Coordinadora del Grupo Juvenil, Andrey Arévalo, a los miembros del Grupo Juvenil de Santa María y a sus padres, al equipo principal, a Álvaro Arévalo, esposo de Andrey quien siempre es tan servicial, y al Consejo 4901 de Caballeros de Colón.

¡Gracias a todos ustedes que donaron artículos para la rifa y deliciosos postres! Gracias a todos ustedes que asistieron y participaron esa noche. Después de lo difícil del último año por la pandemia y las restricciones y el distanciamiento que ha sido parte de todo esto, creo que todos disfrutamos de estar en compañía mutua y convivir uno con otro. Y, por supuesto, al apoyar el evento, estamos apoyando a nuestro grupo juvenil. Si Dios quiere, tendremos otro convivio parroquial en un futuro no muy lejano.

A medida que seguimos avanzando durante esta temporada de Pascua y primavera, también estamos plenamente en la temporada de "Sacramentos". El sábado pasado, nuestros alumnos de segundo grado de la Escuela de Notre Dame recibieron la Eucaristía por primera vez, al hacer su Primera Comunión. Este sábado, el Obispo Jaime Soto le dio a los estudiantes de séptimo grado de Notre Dame el Sacramento de la Confirmación. Los estudiantes de nuestro programa de Educación Religiosa también se están preparando para la Confirmación y la Primera Comunión. Durante la mayor parte del año académico, los padres han estado catequizando a sus hijos en casa. Nuestros catequistas se reúnen regularmente con nuestros padres y Martha Batres-Martin, la directora, organizó reuniones mensuales con los padres para su formación. A principios de cada mes, la Hermana Eileen, la Hermana Adriana, el Padre Steven, yo y otras catequistas dieron presentaciones sobre el material que los padres enseñarían a sus hijos durante ese mes. En las reuniones mensuales, los padres tuvieron la oportunidad de dividirse en grupos pequeños con catequistas y hablar sobre las mejores prácticas de enseñanza. Ahora estamos en "modo de aula" para lo que resta antes de la Primera Comunión y Confirmación, ya que los estudiantes de Confirmación y Primera Comunión se reúnen una vez a la semana en persona durante seis semanas para la catequesis en nuestro salón parroquial. Por favor, continúe orando por nuestros jóvenes feligreses quienes harán su Primera Comunión el fin de semana del 5 y 6 de junio y por nuestros estudiantes de Confirmación quienes serán confirmados a finales de agosto. ¡Y, por favor, oren también por sus padres quienes trabajan arduamente para transmitir la fe a sus hijos!

Por último, en el Día de las Madres, queremos dar gracias a Dios por todas nuestras madres: las que aún viven y las que han pasado a su recompensa eterna. No estuviéramos aquí sin nuestras madres. Aprovechamos esta ocasión para orar por todas las madres y especialmente para alabar y honrar a nuestra Santísima Madre. Bajo el manto de Santa María, que todas las madres encuentren protección, guía y consuelo. ¡Santa María, orad por nosotros!

En el Señor Resucitado,
Padre Berg

El Santo Evangelio

La palabra evangelio significa "Buena Nueva". La Sagrada Escritura nos presenta cuatro "buenas nuevas" o evangelios: Mateo, Marcos, Lucas y Juan. Son cuatro estilos distintos de presentarnos a Jesús, la Buena Nueva de Dios. Mateo nos presenta a un Jesús nacido en el más puro de los judaísmos, con tres conjuntos de 14 generaciones cada uno; a lo largo de su relato nos dirá una y otra vez que Jesús es el Maestro de maestros, es el cumplimiento de la Ley, en plenitud. Marcos, por su parte, no nos presenta ningún relato de su nacimiento, sino que va al punto: "Esta es la Buena Nueva de Jesucristo, el hijo de Dios". Puesto que su comunidad cristiana en Roma es perseguida, mediante el sufrimiento de Jesús da sentido a su sufrimiento martirial. Lucas encarna la realidad y sufrimiento de los pobres y desposeídos de este mundo, y para ello, les cuenta el relato de un Dios que nace pobre entre los pobres; más tarde, presentará a Jesús no sólo del lado de los pobres, sino a la mesa, compartiendo ya el Reino de Dios por adelantado. Juan nos dirá desde el principio lo que sus contemporáneos no pueden aceptar: Jesús es Dios, desde el principio.
