FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear St. Mary's Parishioners,

Love gives us the superpower to peer beyond the mere superficial. Take the prime example of bride and groom on their wedding day. Notice how they look at one another. As stunning as the flowing dresses may be or dapperly the suits, the real drama takes place on their faces. Their eyes are locked on each other in immortal affection. The miniscule muscles around the mouth tremble loftily. The rest of the body freezes in warmth, as the heart palpitates blood a thousand times over. Bride and groom stand before one another, face to face, dazed by mystery. Staring at one another at the colossal of moments, they see something entirely different than you and I. We see our friends, our sister or brother, our daughter or son, our cousin of distant relation or whatever the connection may be. The groom and bride however, recognize that the one who stands before them is so much more. Love has the power to penetrate the surface of reality, manifesting another entirely sweet dimension.

"Who do you say that I am?" Jesus asked this question to his disciples in Matthew 16:13-16. Or put it another way, he asked them what do you see when you look at me? Other people answered sheepishly: "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah; and still others say Jeremiah or one of the prophets." This anemic answer is stuck on the surface. But notice the response of Peter in this pivotal flash. Through a unique gift of grace, God granted him the transformative vision of love. He exclaimed, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." Peter went deep, blazing past the mere appearance of Jesus as he stood there in all his normalcy and saw the hidden divine truth—the man in front of him was more than a man. Just like a bride on her special day, the man standing before her is more than a man, and she is more than just a woman to him.

With all that said, what do you see when you stare at the Eucharist? Through all appearances, your senses tell you one thing. The eyes see bread and your palette tells you the same. The wine still tastes and smells like fermented grapes. Yet, the words of Jesus in the infamous Gospel of John, chapter six, haunts us, methodically and scandalously. "This is hard; who can accept it?" they said, when Jesus commanded them that his "flesh is true food and his blood his true drink." If they want eternal life, they must gnaw on him. This was simply too much for many of those who followed Jesus. The majority of the people abandoned him here. They "saw" Jesus and balked. Turning to the remaining few who lingered, he asked them the question that love dreads to ask, "Do you also want to leave?" For love to be authentic love, it must be given freely and accepted without coercion or force. Jesus gives them the option to stay or flee, to return to life as the status quo and go back to the surface. Peter now, with eyes enraptured in love replies, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life, we have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God." Peter saw love. Peter saw Jesus in the Eucharist. The saints see Jesus giving every ounce of his love to go after the lost sheep. What do you see?

A Slave of Jesus Christ,

Fr. Brian J. Salvo

PRAY FOR...

Please keep the following people in your prayers: for those suffering illnesses and those in need of our prayers... Beverly Gessler, Mary Kacher, Cristina Camacho, Lois Zeimet Walt Simon, Blake Dombrowski, Paul Squire, Fr. Mike McFadden, Ashley Madonna, Luke Matthews, Carol Oswalt, Sue Augustine, and the homebound.

The Meeting of the Two Hearts

The hearts of Jesus and Mary were mercilessly crushed at Calvary. Today, the same scenario is repeated at every moment. The Two Hearts still bleed profusely. Human hearts have turned cold. Blasphemies, insults, and mockeries against our Lord and our Lady abound.

Everyone is encouraged to attend!

Thank you Knights!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our amazing Knights of Columbus council. Their generosity never ceases to amaze me. Within a matter of a few weeks, they raised an astonishing $7,500 for a new Air Conditioning unit for the parish offices, allowing us to replace our 20 year old system. It barely kept the offices cool when the temperatures reached above 90 degrees. May God reward our brother Knights and all the families who charitable gave from their hard earned income to help our parish family.

Rachel's Ministry weekend retreat

November 10-12, 2023, Rachel's Ministry weekend retreats are a wonderful opportunity for anyone who has struggled with the emotional or spiritual pain of an abortion. Retreat is a very specific process designed to help a person experience God's mercy and compassion. It is also an opportunity to surface and release repressed feelings of anger, shame, guilt, and hurt. The weekend will help people find their soul and transform the pain of the past into love and hope.

If you are interested in attending a retreat, please call: (916) 733-0161. For more information, visit our website: <https://www.scd.org/family-and-faith-formation/prayerworship>

EL CUERPO Y LA SANGRE DE CRISTO

11 de junio de 2023

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Estimados Feligreses de Santa María,

El amor nos da el superpoder de mirar más allá de lo meramente superficial. Tomemos el ejemplo primordial de amor de la novia y el novio en el día de su boda. Fíjense cómo se miran uno a otro. Por deslumbrantes que sean los vestidos o los elegantes que sean los trajes, la verdadera acción toma lugar en sus rostros. Sus ojos están fijos en el uno al otro con afecto inmortal. Los pequeños músculos alrededor de la boca tiemblan altivamente. El resto del cuerpo paralizado en calor, mientras el corazón palpita sangre mil veces. La novia y el novio están parados uno frente al otro, cara a cara, aturdidos por el misterio. Mirándose uno al otro en la grandiosa dimensión del momento, ven algo completamente diferente a lo que ustedes y yo vemos. Nosotros vemos a nuestros amigos, nuestra hermana o hermano, nuestra hija o hijo, nuestro primo de un pariente lejano o cualquiera que sea la conexión. El novio y la novia, sin embargo, reconocen que quien está frente a ellos es mucho más. El amor tiene el poder de penetrar la superficie de la realidad, manifestando otra dimensión completamente amorosa.

"¿Quién dices que soy?" Jesús hizo esta pregunta a sus discípulos en Mateo 16:13-16. O dicho de otra manera, les preguntó ¿qué ven cuando me miran? Otras personas respondieron tímidamente: "Unos dicen Juan el Bautista; otros, Elías; y otros, Jeremías, o alguno de los profetas." Esta respuesta anémica está atrapada en la superficie. Pero observen la respuesta de Pedro en este destello fundamental. A través de un don único de gracia, Dios le concedió la visión transformadora del amor. Exclamó: "Tú eres el Mesías, el Hijo del Dios viviente". Pedro profundizó, más allá de la mera apariencia de Jesús mientras estaba allí de pie en toda su normalidad y vio la divina verdad escondida: el hombre frente a él era más que un hombre. Al igual que una novia en su día especial, el hombre que está frente a ella es más que un hombre y ella es más que solo una mujer para él.

Dicho todo esto, ¿qué ven cuando miran fijamente la Eucaristía? A través de todas las apariencias, sus sentidos les dicen una cosa. Los ojos ven pan y su paladar les dice lo mismo. El vino todavía sabe y huele a uvas fermentadas. Sin embargo, las palabras de Jesús en el famoso Evangelio de Juan, capítulo seis, nos persiguen, metódica y escandalosamente. "Esto es duro; ¿Quién puede aceptarlo? dijeron, cuando Jesús les encomendó que "mi carne es verdadera comida, y mi sangre es verdadera bebida". Si quieren la vida eterna, deben comerlo. Esto fue simplemente demasiado para muchos de los que seguían a Jesús. La mayoría de la gente lo abandonó aquí. Ellos "vieron" a Jesús y se resistieron. Dirigiéndose a los pocos que se quedaron, les hizo la pregunta que el amor teme hacer: "¿También quieres irte?" Para que el amor sea amor auténtico, debe darse libremente y aceptarse sin extorsión ni presión. Jesús les da la opción de quedarse o huir, de regresar a su vida, a la misma situación como estaban y volver a la superficie. Pedro ahora, con los ojos cautivados en el amor, responde: "Maestro, ¿a quién iremos? Tú tienes palabras de vida eterna, hemos llegado a creer y estamos convencidos de que eres el Santo de Dios". Pedro vio el amor. Pedro vio a Jesús en la Eucaristía. Los santos ven a

Jesús dando cada onza de su amor para ir tras la oveja perdida. ¿Que ven ustedes?

Un Esclavo de Jesucristo,

Padre Brian J. Solinen

El Encuentro de los Dos Corazones

Los corazones de Jesús y María fueron aplastados sin piedad en el Calvario. Hoy, el mismo escenario se repite a cada momento. Los Dos Corazones todavía sangran profusamente. Los corazones humanos se han vuelto fríos. Abundan las blasfemias, los insultos y las burlas contra el Señor y nuestra Señora Madre.

La celebración en la Parroquia de Santa María de la festividad del "Sagrado Corazón de Jesús" serán viernes 16 de junio y del "Inmaculado Corazón de María" sábado 17 de junio de 2023.
